

PERSONAL STATEMENT

From the Lego buildings and coloring contests of my childhood, to my involvement in design competitions, the completion of multiple internships along the way and collaborative roles in professional organizations, I have developed a work hard, play hard mentality.

As a creative mind, I thrive on taking initiative and enjoy stimulating projects. As an individual who is able to work in a fast-paced work environment while simultaneously manage multiple projects at once, I believe it is important to remember that great ideas and insights can come from anyone and anywhere. I am an enthusiastic and dependable leader and collaborator who enjoys inspiring motivation and creativity in others. I strongly believe that if you truly love what you do, you will never work a day in your life.
